WORMS

"I had for years suffered from what medical men called Dyspepsia and Catarrh of the Stomach. In August I purchased a box of Cascarets and was surprised to find that I had 'cured' myself. I was able to eat and sleep and my bowels were regular. I have since purchased several boxes and have enjoyed the best of health ever since. I repeat this testimonial with a view to relieving others who are suffering from the same trouble."—Chas. Blackstock, 1215 Division Place, West Philadelphia, Pa.

EAST BARRE.

There will be a social dance in the opera hall Saturday evening, March 17, under the direction of Mrs. Waincomb and Joe Connolly. Gauthier's orchestra will furnish music. Bill 50 cents.

A unique entertainment, which was both interesting and instructive, was given at the church last evening. It was entitled "Ye Are the Light of the World," and was given by a number of girls under the training of Mrs. Achenbach, assisted by Miss Belle Moore. There was a large audience present, and great interest was shown in the entertainment.

WILLIAMSTOWN.

The ladies of the Universalist society will give a supper and entertainment at the town hall Saturday evening, March 10. A supper consisting of salads, cold meats, hot rolls, pies, cake and coffee will be served from 5 to 7:30, followed by an entertainment by "Edison's Famous Rag Dolls." Music for promenading will be furnished after the entertainment. Full bill 25c. Supper alone 15c. Entertainment alone 10c.

The Egg Question.

The problem of finding a cheap poultry food that will increase egg production during the winter, when eggs are high, has been solved by those farmers who purchase Green Cut Bone and Meat for their poultry. C. S. Page of Hyde Park, Vt., grinds many thousands of pounds annually of this article and is this year selling it for $3.50 per barrel of 200 pounds, freight prepaid to buyer's railroad station. There is now no necessity for going without this staple poultry food. If you cannot use a barrel yourself, get some of your neighbors to join in with you. You will find it valuable as an egg-producer.

PROPOSALS FOR BIDS.

INDICTED MINERS ANSWER.

Boise, Idaho, March 10.—President Charles Meyer, Secretary William Haywood and Committeeman George L. Pettibone of the Western Federation of Miners Thursday filed their answers in the Supreme court to the return made by Warden Whitney of the penitentiary in the habeas corpus proceedings. The answers are identical, except in minor details, respecting the movements of the accused during several months prior to the murder of former Governor Steunenberg. Meyer says he was, on February 17, a citizen of Denver, and had been for four years; that he had not been in Idaho since October 28, 1905; that on October 25, 1905, he entered Idaho from Oregon in a railway train and went to Silver City, attended a local lodge meeting of the Western Federation of Miners; that he remained in Silver City overnight, and during the following day attended a similar lodge meeting in a small town near Silver City, and the next day went to Nampa and took the train at once from Idaho; that prior to said time he had not been in the state of Idaho for a period of more than three years. Proceeding, the answer states that Meyer was not in Caldwell at the time of the assassination of Frank Steunenberg, December 30.

It is alleged that the arrest is in violation of the fourth, fifth and the fourteenth amendments of the United States constitution, and in violation of sections 8, 15 and 17 of the constitution of Idaho, covering the personal rights of the individual in such matters.

OF BARRE GRANITE.

Part of Former Governor Morton's Monument Will Be Made.

The design of McDonnell & Sons, of Buffalo, N. Y., has been selected for the monument to Former Governor Morton, to be erected in Indianapolis with a legislative appropriation. The design embodies an elaborate granite pedestal, surrounded by a bronze statue of Governor Morton, and having bronze groups on either side. The pedestal is to be of Barre granite 16-0-16 at the base and the total height of the monument will be 35 feet. The design includes the monument with the die stone, base, pedestal and figure, to be placed in the center of the walk leading up to the east front of the State House. This walk is 70 feet across by 65 feet long. On each side of the walk, to be known as the "Morton Plaza," are to be eighteen columns, made from Bedford stone, the whole row of columns being about eight feet high and forty-five feet long. These columns are to typify the thirty-six states that helped to preserve the Union during the civil war, and, starting with the front columns, the name of the state first sending troops to the war, with the date, is to be cut into the frieze of the colonnade. Between the pairs of column seats for the public are to be provided. The pedestal-base of the monument proper is to be of Barre granite, 16 feet long by 9 feet 10 inches wide.—Monumental News.

RICHTER DEAD.

Radicals' Leader in German Reichstag.

Berlin, March 12.—Eugen Richter, radical leader in the reichstag since its foundation, Bismark's old opponent, and a long-time editor of the Freisinnige Zeitung, died at 4 Saturday morning.

Herr Richter, who was enfeebled by an illness of two years, and who had been blind for a year, died of heart failure. He was the last notable parliamentary-journalistic figure of the empire.

He was Prince Bismark's passionate opponent. The great chancellor felt so sensitively Herr Richter's attack on him in the reichstag that he wanted to fight a duel with him, and finally the chancellor always left the house when Richter rose to speak.
